BLOOMINGTON, Ind. – Get into the Halloween spirit early with IU's first sneak preview of the semester. "Paranormal Activity 3" will play for free at 9 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 20 in the Whittenberger Auditorium of the IMU.

The film is free but requires a ticket. Tickets can be picked up from the Back Alley in the Indiana Memorial Union or the Union Board office located on the second floor of the student activity tower in the Indiana Memorial Union.

"I always love bringing sneaks to campus," said Graham Davis, Union Board Director of Films. "They generate a lot of buzz and people always have a great time."

Wide release is set for Oct. 21, one day after the free screening at IU. The film is a prequel to the first two films.

The Indiana University Memorial Union Board is the largest programming body on the Bloomington campus, organizing events and activities such as concerts, lectures, debates and film screenings.
