Indiana University Memorial Union Board presents:

Exposed: An HIV+ Playmate Tells Her Story

Featuring Rebekka Armstrong

March 21, 2012

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. – The Indiana University Memorial Union Board Lectures Committee have arranged an event with guest speaker Rebekka Armstrong. The event will take place Tuesday, March 27 at 7pm in the Frangipani Room. There is no cost of admission.

Rebekka Armstrong is a former Playboy Playmate who has become an outspoken activist in HIV/AIDS awareness. Rebekka announced she was HIV+ in a 1994 issue of The Advocate after years of hiding the physical effects and dealing with the emotional effects of keeping her condition secret. She has since become dedicated to sharing her educational and inspiring message of prevention, hope, and the reality of HIV/AIDS. Union Board hopes that Rebekka's lecture will highlight the issue of HIV/AIDS amongst young adults and encourage students to be safe and responsible.

The Indiana University Memorial Union Board is the largest programming body on the Bloomington campus. The board, which also serves as the governing body of the Indiana Memorial Union, strives to organize a diverse range of events and activities around which students may come together. The organization plans concerts, lectures, debates, musicals, and more. To learn more about Union Board, call (812) 855-4682 or email ubvpmem@indiana.edu.
