Indiana University Memorial Union Board presents:

The Political Scene According to Steele

Featuring Michael Steele

March 26, 2012

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. – The Indiana University Memorial Union Board Debates & Issues Committee and Indiana University College Republicans have arranged an event featuring politician Michael Steele, the first African-American chairman of the Republican National Committee. The event will take place April 3rd at 8pm in Alumni Hall. There is no cost of admission.

Michael Steele is a politician and corporate finance attorney who has appeared on Meet the Press, Face the Nation, Real Time with Bill Maher, The Rachel Maddow Show, The Colbert Report, and the Daily Show. His writing has appeared in the Wall Street Journal, The Washington Times, and The Journal of International Security Affairs. He has also delivered major addresses at the Republican National Conventions in 2004 and 2008 and served as Chairman of the Republican National Committee from January 2009 to January 2011. He broke fundraising records in 2010, raising over $192 million and, according to Debates and Issues Director Eric Farr, “Steele will provide students with accurate insights into the increasingly important political scene and highlight the current state of the GOP in regards to the upcoming elections.”

The Indiana University Memorial Union Board is the largest programming body on the Bloomington campus. The board, which also serves as the governing body of the Indiana Memorial Union, strives to organize a diverse range of events and activities around which students may come together. The organization plans concerts, lectures, debates, musicals, and more. To learn more about Union Board, call (812) 855-4682 or email ubvpmem@indiana.edu.
